BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue might be recommended to the Learned of the Age, for the many Choice and Conſiderable Books it contains in all its parts. But ſince thoſe late ſwelling and fulſome Prefaces, to empty and triſling Catalogues, have nauſeated the Learned and Intelligent Readers, I ſhall henceforward forbear to trouble the World with any Characters or Deſcriptions, unleſs I am ſufficiently ſatisfied the Books do truly deſerve them. The Gentlemen the Buyers, by their Converſe, and learned Conferences at Auctions, are generally qualified both to judge of the Value and Scarcity of moſt Books that preſent themſelves in our Sales: Therefore I freely ſubmit them to their peruſal and impartial Cenſure; and invite them alſo to a ſight and examination of them three Days before the Sale.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 11*th* of June 1688. at the Auction-Houſe over againſt the Black-Swan in Ivy-Mary Lane, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books be ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall forthwith be exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Mony for the Book or Books so bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within a Fortnight after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are Sold; where, upon the Payment thereof, the Book or Books shall be delivered for the Fortnight aforesaid.

IV. That all Gentlemen, &c. Buyers, do give in, not only their Sirnames, but Christian, as also their Places of Abode, with the Signs they Live or Lodg at, to the end that every Person may have Justice done him in the buying, and in the delivery.

V. The Books will be exposed to view for Three Days before the time of Sale, being generally fair and well-bound, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.
